THE OWOSSO TIMES.

EDMUND O. DEWEY, EDITOR.
OFFICIAL PAPER OF CITY AND COUNTY.
OWOSSO, MICH., FRIDAY, JULY 1, 1898.

Y. M. C. A. Notes.
Rev. W. S. Ament will address the men's meeting next Sunday afternoon at 4 o'clock. It will be a practical talk which every man in Owosso should hear.

The bath rooms have been freshened by a coat of paint, and new matting in the waiting room. They are more attractive than ever now, and the improvement is appreciated by the young men.

H. H. Culver has presented the association with 50 volumes from his library. The gift includes some valuable commentaries and other books helpful to Bible students. It is a most acceptable present.

A splendid list of talent has been secured for the Star Lecture Course. It will comprise the Ladies' Military Band, of Boston; the Cecilia Musical Club, with Karl Marshall White, reader; George Kennan, the famous Siberian traveler, with a new lecture on "Cuba"; a lecture by Dr. W. H. Crawford, president of Allegheny College, subject "Savonarola"; Thomas McClary, of Minneapolis, subject, "Sunshine in Labor." The price of season tickets will be $1.00 as last year.

The army work of the Y. M. C. A. is receiving the support of people everywhere, as it richly merits, for a more practical work was never undertaken anywhere. The tents with their accommodations at the camps have been of untold help to the men gathered there, and they will be taken to the front with the men as rapidly as money is provided. Tents have gone to the Philippines, and others are ready to go to Cuba. Between fifty and sixty secretaries are already employed in the association army work in the field, and any number are ready to go if the way opens.

Mr. Edwin Emerson Jr., whose adventures in Porto Rico last month were chronicled by newspapers from one end of the country to the other, contributes to the Review of Reviews for July a valuable account of some things that he saw and learned on his perilous journeyings. As Porto Rico seems destined to be the theater of the next great movement of our troops after the fall of Santiago, this fresh and first-hand study of the country from an American point of view is most timely. The article is illustrated.

HOW are the children this summer? Are they doing well? Do they get all the benefit they should from their food? Are their cheeks and lips of good color? And are they hearty and robust in every way?
If not, then give them
Scott's Emulsion
of cod liver oil with hypophosphites.
It never fails to build up delicate boys and girls. It gives them more flesh and better blood.
It is just so with the baby also. A little Scott's Emulsion, three or four times a day, will make the thin baby plump and prosperous. It furnishes the young body with just the material necessary for growing bones and nerves.

The Hen and the Cow.
Sing ho for the brindle dairy cow,
Sing hi for the little brown hen,
Such a couple was never on earth below
To feather the nest of men;
With the golden products of good Queen Bess
No udder can compare,
While the snowy fruit of the cackling "bute"
Brings a solace for every care.
Men risk their lives for the shining ore,
Deep laid in a frozen clime,
When these faithful servants bring them more,
And peace at the self-same time;
With pasture in plenty and bugs galore,
They never will lack for feed;
Their stock is at par at the grocery store
For things that the farmers need.
Then, three times three for the bovine "she,"
And three for the female fowl,
At the farmer's door which they feed before
No wolf has a chance to howl.
No poet's dream ever hatched a theme
More worthy a poet's pen
Than the kindly queen of the pasture green
And the busy cackling hen.

The Burton Farmers' Club.
The discussion at the June meeting of the Burton Farmers' Club, which was held at the residence of Hon. F. M. Shepard, was spirited and full of interest.

Mr. Shepard gave a lengthy and instructive talk on "The Work of the Legislature." Mrs. James Martin read an article entitled, "Does Education tend to Promote Morality?" The writer produced an abundance of authority to show that education not only does not promote morality, but on the contrary has a most depressing effect on the morals of the civilized nations of the world. Mrs. R. C. Shepard and Mrs. N. M. Randall read papers on the subject, "Is the Love of Money the Root of all Evil?" Mrs. Randall's arguments were all in the affirmative. She said: If we believe the Bible, we must believe that the love of money is the root of all evil. Mrs. L. S. Bowles was also of the opinion that the love of money is the principal cause of all evil. Mrs. Rowell, Mr. Randall and others thought the love of money was the cause of more sorrows, suffering and evil than its possession. Mr. Rowell spoke of the value of money and the good it has done and is now doing in the hands and under the management of benevolent people who had attained great wealth.

The State Association topic "The Farmer's duty regarding the Temperance Question" seems to be a problem hard to solve. Mrs. Rease and Mrs. Devendorf can see no way to get rid of the liquor traffic, except through the prohibition party. F. M. Shepard said: "We will wait until the women get the right of suffrage, and then let them settle it, and we will help them all we can." R. C. Shepard favored local option and always voted for it, or any other temperance movement. Mr. Martin was opposed to local option unless the entire state was included. Mr. Randall was opposed to the license system. Mr. Dewitt said: "This question cannot be settled by politics, every man will stay by his party and vote for it. Religious people only can do it." Mr. Bowles never employs a drinking man nor one who smokes. He said: "If I never have my work done, I will not have a drinking man on my farm." C. R. Woodin and others, though not as radical as Mr. Bowles, thought his plans worthy of commendation. Mr. Rush said: "I have hard work to get men to do my work who have no bad habits."

The example and influence of the Burton Farmers' Club is all on the side of temperance, and when the petition asking for local option in Shiawassee county was circulated in the club, every member gave it his signature.

"Phil" Shepard took a day home from the Agricultural College to meet with the club. He, with his sister Bertha and Miss Inez Rowell opened the afternoon exercises with a song and organ accompaniment. The club adjourned to meet at the residence of C. R. Woodin the first Thursday in August.

The Sultan and Our Missionaries.
The Porte has demanded the recall of two American Missionaries from the province of Aleppo, on the pretext that their mission is likely to cause disturbances. "The sick man of Europe," is as unreasonable as his political health is feeble. As a bright contrast to his obstinacy and stupidity, the people of America are acknowledging far and wider the beneficence of the mission of Hostetter's Stomach Bitters, namely, to relieve and prevent malaria, rheumatism and kidney complaint, chronic dyspepsia, constipation and liver trouble. The nervous, the weak and the infirm derive unspeakable benefit from its use, and it greatly mitigates the weakness and infirmities which are specially incident to advancing years.

The Nashville News prints an item which all farmers would do well to read and ponder over. It says: "To illustrate the importance to the farmers of pulling the rye out of their wheat, we were shown returns on a car of wheat which was shipped by Townsend & Brooks last week to Toledo. The car was sold at 78 cents, while the same grade of wheat, free from rye, was worth on the same day 95¢, a difference in price of 17¢ cents per bushel. The elevator men say they cannot stand it to lose this difference and that this year's wheat will be docked if mixed with rye to an extent which will let them out. Pull out the rye. It pays."

A Common Complaint.
Dimondale, Mich., June 18, 1898. In warm weather nearly every one is troubled with a tired, languid feeling, which interferes with comfort and successful work. A remedy for this condition is found in Hood's Sarsaparilla. Mrs. Jesse Sears of this place states that she was troubled with a tired feeling, which was so severe that she hardly felt able to move. A few bottles of Hood's Sarsaparilla has cured her.

Gold Democrats Active.
Grand Rapids, June 28—Chairman W. R. Shelby, of the sound money democratic state central committee, is receiving many letters from all parts of the state urging that a state convention be called to nominate a straight democratic ticket. Most of these letters, as might be expected, are from those active in the sound money movement two years ago, but letters are coming from some who, for the sake of "regularity" trained with the Bryan crowd in the last campaign. The letters from these persons are most interesting as they indicate the dissatisfaction among old-time democrats against the fusion deal.

Chairman Shelby will in a few days call a meeting of the sound money state central committee to consider the situation and it is probable a state convention will be called. The convention will be a mass affair, instead of delegates, and a ticket will be nominated with Levi L. Barbour, of Detroit, and Eugene Pringle, of Jackson, as gubernatorial possibilities. In the campaign two years ago the Detroit sound money democrats did not manifest any great interest in the movement, and let a few democrats, mostly in western Michigan, do the big end of the work. A repetition of the fusion deal by the "regular" Democrats this season and Dan J. Campau's rise in political prominence have stirred up the Detroit democrats, and some of the strongest letters received by Mr. Shelby are from them, insisting that independent action should be taken.

Preparing for Blue Ribbon Week.
As the racing season advances the trainers who have charge of the crack trotters and pacers are making ready for the grand circuit that opens in Detroit, July 18. The Blue Ribbon meeting at the famous Grosse Point track attracts the fastest horses in the land, so that this great racing carnival never fails to furnish sport. There are no other events among the regular contests along the line of the summer tour for the sulks to be compared in value with the Merchants and Manufacturers' stake for trotters, and Chamber of Commerce stake given to the pacers. These two annual fixtures are the coveted plums of each year, being worth the goodly sum of $15,000, in all. Since their inauguration both have resulted in some of the most brilliant battles ever seen in harness racing, and the struggles of this coming tournament bid fair to outdo anything that has preceded.

Besides these ever popular attractions it is practically settled two giants of the sulky will measure swords at Detroit on the first day of the Blue Ribbon meeting. Joe Patchen and John R. Gentry have so wide a reputation that there is not a man, woman or child throughout this broad republic but has heard of their fame. Both are remarkable horses; Gentry, swift as an eagle and almost unbeatable when the day and track are suited to his lightning gait. He has a formidable foe in the big black pacer whose turf career has been a veritable blaze of heroic deeds. This noted pair of equine gladiators were both bred in Kansas, and like the cyclone of their native state they have cut down records and swept all lesser rivals aside in their all-conquering march to a front rank among the turf celebrities of the day.

With the numerous sensations presented at the Blue Ribbon meeting, Detroit will be the objective point for all lovers of the noble horse during the six days from July 18 to 23. Those who take advantage of the one rare show on all lines running to the state metropolis will have been secured for Monday, when Patchen and Gentry come together, can remain until Wednesday and see the contests for both big stakes as well.

General Items.
From the Shiawassee School Journal:
A library fund of about $10 has been raised by means of socials at Selota No. 3.
The Life of Frances E. Willard has been added to the school library at Middlebury No. 7.
A last day school picnic and presentation of county diploma at Shiawassee No. 11-Fr. June 18.

We had the pleasure of attending a very nice school picnic at New Lotthrop June 24, and of presenting a county diploma.

During the last school year the University of Michigan enrolled over 3,000 pupils, and the State Normal College over 1,000.

On June 24th, a new flag was raised with patriotic exercises at Woodhull No. 3. The money to buy the flag was raised by school socials.

Fifty-two teachers attended the county examination at Durand, and twenty-four certificates were issued, six of which were second grade.

New flag and flag pole at New Haven No. 8. The pupils raised part of the money by subscription and the school board made up the remainder.

On June 10th, a new flag pole and flag were raised at Selota No. 8. The money for the flag was raised by school socials. God bless the patriotic teachers of Shiawassee county.

The commissioner's post office address for the next two weeks will be Lake City, Mich., the office in Cornuna will not be open on Saturday, July 2d and perhaps not on July 9th.

Officers of the New Haven Patrons, Teachers and School Officers' Association: E. S. Dean, President; John McAvoy, Vice President; Mayne Odell, Sec.; C. F. Hermann, Enon Chamberlain, A. Kingsbury, Ex-committee.

In Hazelton No. 6, Mabel Brown has been present every day during the past school year; Roy Moore, Chester Johnson, Ray Hartshorn, Harry Sherman, and Frank Moore have not been tardy during the year.

It is, indeed, very gratifying to see the unselfish interest in the school and its surroundings taken by some school directors. Some people think that in papering or painting a school house any color is good enough. It doesn't matter whether it is black or maltese. Its nothing but a school house, what's the difference? The director of Caledonia No. 6 is not like this, however, as he has decorated the walls of their school room with the prettiest paper he could find.

One of the school officers of Venice No. 1 takes pride in setting out and caring for shade trees on the school grounds, and as far as we know he doesn't get any pay for it. Doesn't he? Indeed he does, but he doesn't get it in cash.
We had the pleasure of being present at a very enthusiastic pole and flag raising at Antrim No. 4-Fr., on June 3d. The teacher and pupils had prepared some very fitting exercises, and they were exceptionally well rendered. The whole school day was given to this patriotic demonstration, and, strange as it may seem to some districts, the teacher does not have to make up the time, even though it was not the last day of the term. We thank Providence most heartily that there are school districts in this and every other county that appreciate the truth that the public schools are maintained to train true and capable citizens of this republic, and that there are many lessons for the boys and girls to learn, aside from those contained between the lids of a text-book, in order to attain that exalted station of manhood and womanhood.

Text-Book Question Tensely Stated.
(From school column conducted by Supt. F. D. Smith, Greenville.)

At the next annual meeting every school district in Michigan is required to take some action relative to the new text-book law, or in the absence of any action, to come under the provisions of said law. First, if districts take no action at all, they come under the provisions of the Graham-Forsyth law, requiring them to use a prescribed set of text-books at prescribed prices. The books prescribed are not yet published, and no books now published fulfill all the requirements of the law. Hence districts coming under its provisions will be compelled to change all their text-books.

Second, districts may vote to continue as they now are and thus avoid the provisions of the law. This does not prevent their adopting the books established by the law, if they so choose at some later meeting.

Third, districts so voting may provide free text-books, adopting such books as they choose and buying at wholesale rates. This does not prevent their using the books provided by the law provided they choose to adopt them.

Dr. Miles' Heart Cure
Cures a Prominent Attorney.

M. R. C. PHELPS, the leading pension attorney of Belfast, N. Y., writes: "I was discharged from the army on account of ill health, and suffered from heart trouble ever since. I frequently had fainting and smothering spells. My form was bent as a man of 80. I constantly wore an overcoat, even in summer, for fear of taking cold. I could not attend to my business. My rest was broken by severe pains about the heart and left shoulder. Three years ago I commenced using Dr. Miles' Heart Cure, notwithstanding I had used so much patent medicine and taken drugs from doctors for years without being helped. Dr. Miles' Heart Cure restored me to health. It is truly a wonderful medicine and it affords me much pleasure to recommend this remedy to everyone."

Dr. Miles' Remedies are sold by all druggists under a positive guarantee, first bottle free, or money refunded. Book on heart and lung troubles, cases of the heart and nerves free. Address: DR. MILES MEDICAL CO., Elkhart, Ind.
